- Tahiko-kun's little sister in Satsukino's class
- Written 飾 and pronounced "Kazari"
- The Ichinose and Tomonaga families have been neighbors for many years
- Her forehead is a charm-point
- She is a lively and energetic girl even moreso than Satsukino
- Exercise is her strong point but her studies are somewhat lacking
- She likes animals so she often plays with Satsukino and Pero-pero
- She thinks her brother's hopeless entrancement with Hinano is quite embarrassing
- She has low tolerance for Tahiko and thus is fine with kicking him
- Satsukino's school uniform has many variations such as Satsukino's mended one-piece and Kazari's active spats type

Character profile

Kanie-sensei

- Ichino's homeroom teacher. She teaches Health and Physical Education.
- Often lovingly called 'Kanie-chan sensei'.
- A confident and candid character. So cool! So pretty!
- Her attitude when dealing with students has won her fans from both genders.
- Ichino also admires her level-headed teacher.
- She guides the male students fearlessly. She's so cool!
- Her bust is rather large. The gaze of adolescent students can be wornsome.
- However, she is extremely afraid of cats.
- When she was in middle school, she was traumatized by stray cats on the mountainside. Ever since then, she trembles in fear whenever she sees one.
- According to her middle school teacher, she was a small and quiet girl.
- She went to great lengths to become stronger and overcome her fears, but she's still bad with cats.
- After being saved by Tonnura-san, she's developed some strange feelings (but she's still bad with cats).
